DON'T BE FOOLED!

The Prosperous Farmer always has a

Band Concert.

No event in Kinsley has been looked forward to with as much interest as the concert given by the Kinsley band last Friday evening at Flohr's opera house.

The audience packed the hall and every number was most enthusiastically encored. The band simply took the people by storm. The fact that they have been organized so short a time led people to believe that they were probably playing very simple music. They played excellent selections with fine expression and good time.

It is a splendid thing for Kinsley to have a large band, and we believe every man, woman and child in the city fully appreciates the fact. The band was organized about two and a half months ago under the leadership of W. I. Burnside and consists of the following members:

Dr. C. M. Mosher, solo B. Flat

Cornet.

Owen Young, Solo B Flat cornet.

Will Bishop, First B Flat Cornet.

Harry Schnatterly, Second B Flat

cornet.

W. I. Burnside, E. Flat Clarion-

et.

H. J. Draught, First B. Flat Clar-

inet.

W. I. Fravel, Second B. Flat Clar-

inet.

Corliss Schnatterly, Baritone.

Frank Lippoldt, Solo Alto.

Frank Ketelson, First Alto.

Elmer Richardson, Second Alto.

Herman Wilson, First Tenor.

Fred Andrews, First Tenor.

Ed Sears, Second Tenor.

Sherman Misner, Second Tenor.

Charles Alexander, E Flat Baso.

John Husser, E. Flat Baso.

Frank Bishop, Bass Drum.

Hugh Nelson, Snare Drum.

A band consisting of nineteen members is an unusually strong one for a town of Kinsley's size.

The boys bought their own instruments and as they are expensive ones they are well equipped. The leader, Mr. Burnside, is an all around musician, and Kinsley is fortunate to number him among her citizens. The man who brings music into a community in any form contributes a great thing to the moral welfare, as well as to the things that make life pleasant. When the opportunity presented itself after the Brussels violin solo the audience complimented him by calling him before the curtain twice. He modestly declined to appear but once.

The Kinsley Orchestra assisted at the band concert, dividing honors with it, each orchestra number receiving an encore. Miss Hine and Mrs. Chas. Mosher were unable to sing owing to the illness of their accompanist.

The following is the program:

Band—March, "Attica."

Orchestra—"On the Banks of the Mississippi," Waltz.

Band—"Mountain Moose Galop."

Orchestra—March, "The Pirate."

Trío—Mrs. Strong, Mrs. Smith and Miss Hine.

Band—Waltz, "Sweet Violets."

Bass Solo, Paul Noble.

Band—"Olive Branch March."

Orchestra—"Who Dar?" Cake

Walk.

Band—"Morristown Independent

March."

The net proceeds were $85.00.

Mayor Schnatterly has promised

the band boys to put up some lamps in the park, so we may hope to have some open air concerts during the summer.

The Kinsley National Bank building

is being put in first-class condition for the opening, which will take place about the 20th of this month.

Mr. Beeler tells us that the capital stock of $25,000 is fully paid up and the only thing now causing delay is the time necessarily taken in getting things in order. The new safe and fixtures are expected every day and will take but a short time to place when received. The organization is exceptionally strong. The stock holders are C. W. Beeler, H. B. Beeler,

L. E. Hohman, G. E. Wilson, A. C.

Dyer, L. Hotewitz, C. H. Falk, H. P.

Ketelson and M. C. Tubbs, of Kinsley, and Calvin Hood, of Emporia, J. D.

Robertson, Jewell City and Lee Clark,

Parsons, Kansas. The last three and

C. W. Beeler are all very wealthy men whose names alone would give the institution financial standing.

C. W. Beeler is president, Calvin

Hood vice president, C. W. Beeler,

J. D. Robertson, Lee Clark, H. B.

Beeler and M. C. Tubbs, directors. G.

D. Griffith, of Emporia, cashier and

G. E. Wilson, assistant. The business of this institution will of course depend on the ability of its cashier to make friends and Mr. Beeler says he is particularly pleased with the selection of Mr. Griffith, who comes highly recommended, is of pleasing personality and address, and a young man who stands very high in Emporia business circles. There is undoubtedly plenty of room here for two banks and we will all join in giving the new one best wishes for its success.
